Character Breakdown – all ages are guidelines

Joseph (Male Age 18-29) Obviously his father's favorite, Joseph early on shows a talent for interpreting dreams and telling the future. This gets him into trouble with his brothers when he predicts his future will include ruling over the other eleven. However, it saves his life when in Egypt he correctly interprets Pharaoh's dreams. In the end he has risen to a great position of power, but he still forgives his brothers and brings his family to Egypt to partake of the bounty he has accumulated there. Strong stage presence and voice. Tenor (low b flat to High G)

Narrators (2) (Female Ages 25-45) not of the time or place of the action, the Narrator tells the story through word and song, guiding the audience gently through the story of Joseph and his brothers. Strong belt. Mezzo-Soprano (low A to High A)

Jacob/Potiphar/Pharaoh: (Male Age 35-55) This man will play 3 roles throughout the show.

- Potiphar: A powerful and rich Egyptian, Potiphar purchases Joseph and puts him to work in his household. When he grows suspicious of his wife and Joseph, however, he grows angry and has Joseph thrown into prison.
- Pharaoh: The most powerful man in Egypt, depicted "Elvis"-like. When Joseph interprets his dreams, he promotes him to one of the highest positions in his government. This actor must be able to handle drama, comic timing and a strong voice. Fun challenge. Baritone (Low B flat to High A flat)

The Brothers: (Male or Female Ages: 16-40)
